

The FCC should take action immediately to prevent Sinclair Broadcasting from forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election.

This is a blatant violation of law and the FCC should be as swift to act and as outspoken as they were after the Janet Jackson/Super Bowl controversy.

If the FCC does not take every action possible, then the FCC itself should be held to account by Congress.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest but clearly serves its own agenda instead. Their actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules and make the license renewal process tougher. Thank you.
